

VERY DRAMATIC SCENE

When Arthur Goebel Took the Stand
Youtsey Acted Like Mad.

The Prisoner Battled With the Officers and Was Carried to His Cell—The Court Adjourned Until Wednesday.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 10.—One of the most remarkable scenes ever enacted in a Kentucky court room took place Tuesday night in the Youtsey trial, with the defendant himself as the chief participant. The court room was crowded to the walls with Georgetown's best people at the time and the excitement was intense beyond description. De Armstrong, the Louisville detective, had just told of his talks with Youtsey before and after his arrest. Then Arthur Goebel was put on the stand and Judge Ben Williams, who for the first time appeared for the prosecution, did the questioning.

Arthur Goebel said: "I talked with Youtsey the day he was arrested late in the afternoon in the jail in Frankfort in reference to the murder of my brother."

Just at this point Youtsey arose behind his attorneys and in a loud voice said: "It is untrue—it is a lie—I never spoke a word to that man in my life, nor he to me."

Col. Crawford told him to be quiet and sit down and others took hold of him. "I will not sit down. I never said a word to that man—it is untrue." He was shouting by this time and every one was on their tiptoes of excitement. Youtsey's wife sprang to his side and while endeavoring to make him sit down could be heard saying: "Now you have killed my husband I suppose you are satisfied." Then Youtsey hysterically shouted again: "I am innocent—there is no blood on my hands—these men are swearing my life away." Two or three deputy sheriffs went over and grabbed him. He struggled wildly and said: "Let me alone—I will not sit down." Arthur Goebel meanwhile sat Sphinx-like in the witness chair and never turned his head either way. Finally after Youtsey was forced into a seat, he shouted again: "Goebel is not dead—all the demons in hell could not kill him."

"Mr. Sheriff, if the defendant does not behave himself, put handcuffs on him," said Judge Cantrill. Meanwhile the audience could not be forced to keep their seats and until the judge threatened to fine those who stood up, Youtsey settled back in his chair, closed his eyes and seemed in a state of collapse. He waved his handkerchief above his head in an aimless sort of way and groaned and cried hysterically. Finally quiet was restored and Judge Williams asked Arthur Goebel another question, when Col. Crawford arose and asked a postponement of the trial till Wednesday on account of the defendant's condition. The request was granted and court adjourned.

Youtsey still occupied his chair, with eyes closed, apparently in a half fainting condition. After the crowd passed out Jailer Reed and deputies carried Youtsey to the jail as he was unable to walk. Various reasons are assigned for his unseemly break, the first being that his long confinement and strain of the trial caused him to become hysterical and lose control of himself. Another is that he is really demented as shown by his remark that Goebel is not dead. He is being attended by physicians and relatives at the jail and his condition is deemed critical.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 11.—Henry Youtsey has remained in a comatose condition all day, whether that is due to the opiates administered to quiet him Tuesday night can not be ascertained. He has answered no questions addressed to him by his nearest relatives and physicians, but once or twice during the day he heid up his hands and exclaimed, "There is no blood on my hands—there is no man's blood on my hands."

He has kept his eyes closed all day and they are still slightly crossed as if drawn and set by the convulsion he had Tuesday.

The only nourishment which he has taken was a glass of milk which was almost forced down his throat by the physicians. Dr. Carrick says he is an extremely critical condition, which may take a sudden change for the better or worse any moment and if for the worse Youtsey will be permanently insane. He has not been taken to the jury room in the court house yet, as directed by Judge Cantrill Wednesday morning, but may be taken there some time Thursday if there is no change for the worse in his condition.

A PRETTY WOMAN VICTIM.

With Policies Amounting to $12,000
On Her Life. She Dies Mysteriously in a Boarding House.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—With insurance upon her life amounting to $12,000, Marie Defenbach, aged 34, died August 25 in a boarding house on La Salle avenue under conditions which the police believe indicate a plot to swindle an insurance company and two insurance societies, if they do not point to murder. Upon bench warrants issued by Judge Gibbons, three persons said to be implicated in the case—Dr. August M. Yungler and Frank H. Smiley and F. Wayland Brown, detectives—have been arrested.

When Miss Defenbach died there were three policies on her life, aggregating $12,000, all of recent date, as follows: New York Life Insurance Co., $5,000; Canadian Order of Foresters, $5,000; Knights and Ladies of Honor, $2,000.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Detective Frank Smiley's confession of the details, as he claims to know them, of the insurance fraud conspiracy that brought an untimely and tragic death to Marie A. Defenbach, was made public Tuesday at the county jail where he is confined with F. Wayland Brown and Dr. August M. Yungler, the other alleged conspirators.

In his confession Smiley says that Yungler and Brown had arranged to gain the insurance and that they were to divide it. Yungler was to receive $3,000 while Brown was to take $7,000. Smiley asserts that he was only a tool in the plot and that all he was to receive was $1,000 from Brown for allowing himself to be known as the intended husband of Miss Defenbach.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Laura Carroll is named as another victim of the insurance conspiracy syndicate said to be headed by Dr. August M. Yungler. The physician used her, it is said, as a subject on whom to take out policies in a game similar to that which was attempted with Marie Defenbach.

The Carroll woman disappeared four or five months ago, and none of those with whom she associated have seen her since. During her residence here she was an intimate friend of Miss Defenbach, and is alleged to have been a patient and sweetheart of Dr. Yungler's. Miss Carroll was about 22 years of age. She was an orphan and had a guardian, Dr. Gustav Schmidt, living in Milwaukee, from which city she came here.

During the six or seven months that F. Wayland Brown was managing the Mooney and Boland office here an unusual number of stenographers were employed. These were all women and all were employed by Brown.

The subjects on which the Yungler-Brown-Smiley syndicate secured insurance with fraudulent intent are all believed to be women, while the active members of the organization are men. There are indications that the organization has a much wider scope than was first thought. It is asserted by the detectives that at least two score of people are criminally connected with it. One of those who are now under surveillance is a wealthy and prominent lawyer. He is alleged to be the financial backer.

CAUGHT ON THE CROSSING.

Four Persons Instantly Killed, Two Seriously Injured and One Horse Killed By an Engine.

Holbrook, Neb., Oct. 11.—Wednesday evening as Mrs. Herman Kielbeck and family were crossing the railroad at the depot in a farm wagon, a lone engine going west ran into them, instantly killing Miss Lizzie Horman, Mrs. Kielbeck and her baby girl and Mrs. Carl Bartenbeck also seriously injuring the latter's 4-year-old boy and 18-months-old baby girl. The latter is not expected to survive. Not a person escaped unhurt. The wagon was smashed into kindling wood. Mrs. Bartenbeck was the wife of Carl Bartenbeck, who was shot and killed near here Monday night by his brother-in-law.

Holbrook, Neb., Oct. 10.—Carl Bartenbeck, living one mile south of here, tried to kill his wife and family Monday night. They ran to the home of Mr. Kielbeck, who is Bartenbeck's brother. Bartenbeck followed them and fired several shots at Kielbeck and his family. Kielbeck returned the fire and killed Bartenbeck. The coroner's jury found a verdict of justifiable homicide Tuesday.

OUR REPLY TO FRANCE

It is Completed and in the Hands of the French Government.

A General Rising in the Southern Provinces of China Has Been Planned for the Month of November.

Peking, Thursday, Oct. 4.—The Pao Ting Fu expedition is waiting for the Germans who are not ready to start. It is reported that there are 12,000 Chinese imperial troops at Pao Ting Fu.

Gen. Chaffee has returned here. Peking, Sunday, Oct. 7, via Tientsin, Monday, Oct. 8, and Shanghai, Oct. 9.—Trustworthy Chinese reports say that the dowager empress is seriously ill at Tai-Yuan-Fu (province of Shan-Si), and the free hand of the emperor in affairs of state of late is regarded as confirmatory of these reports.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The reply of the United States government to the latest note from France offering suggestions as to the settlement of the troubles in China was completed late Wednesday and delivered to M. Thiebaut, charge d'affaires of the French embassy. By him it was forwarded immediately to his government.

No official statement of the contents of the answer was obtainable. Following its inflexible rule, the state department declined to make public the text of the communication or to make any statement of the nature of its contents until opportunity had been afforded for its reception by the French foreign office.

It is believed, however, to take a favorable view of the suggestions submitted by the French government in a general way, although it does not commit this government to all of them. Hong-Kong, Oct. 11.—It is said that the authorities here have received information that a general rising in the southern provinces have been planned for the month of November.

Ten thousand more troops from India have been requisitioned for Hong-Kong. The 16th Bengal Lancers and the Hong-Kong regiment have been recalled from the north to Hong-Kong. The present indications are that there will be a Boxer rising similar to that which has occurred in Northern China. The whereabouts of the rebels in the Hinterland is not known, but it is believed to be ten miles north of the British borders.

A detachment of 1,000 Chinese troops took up a position at San-Chung Tuesday and 1,000 more arrived there Wednesday.

Tien-Tsin, Oct. 8, via Shanghai, Oct. 10.—The American marines from Peking have arrived at Taku where they will be joined Thursday by the Tien-Tsin battalion and sail on the Indiana for Cavite.

Peking, Oct. 8, via Tien-Tsin, Oct. 9, and Shanghai, Oct. 10.—The British are planning a small expedition to the coal mine district in the western hills to investigate the supply. It will leave here Wednesday, October 10.

Chinese who have arrived here from Tai-Yuan-Fu assert that Gen. Tung-Fuh-Sian took a large force of his troops when he left there. His present whereabouts are unknown.

Berlin, Oct. 11.—Great Britain's answer to Germany's second note was received Wednesday morning. It is an unreserved and unconditional acceptance of the German position. A high official of the foreign office made the following statement on the subject Wednesday afternoon:

"Great Britain is following the example of the United States. At the same time she has directed her representative in Peking to proceed in accordance with Germany's second note. The answer makes no mention of the German note of September, but there was no necessity for any reference, because the September note merely laid down certain general principles while the second note developed them into practical suggestions."

Wednesday evening the papers did not comment upon the British reply. Few of them, indeed, mention it at all.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.—The Chinese assert that the governor of Shan-Tung and the Yang-Tse viceroys have sent a joint memorial to the empress declaring it to be impossible to guarantee the dispatch of money and provisions to Si-Ngan-Fu and threaten to resign unless the court returns to Peking.

It is believed that Emperor Kwang-Su is anxious to return and the dowager empress wavered until she heard of the expedition to Pao Ting Fu.

Li Hung Chang's secretary reports that foreign troops supposed to be British have already arrived at Pao Ting Fu.

It is said that Li Hung Chang has advised the emperor to return to Peking on the ground that the powers can stop supplies from reaching the province of Shen-Si.

CANADIAN TROOPERS.

How Five of Them Met Death in the Transvaal at the Hands of a Force of Boers.

London, Oct. 11.—A special dispatch from Lydenburg says:

"A Boer prisoner tells the story of the way in which a patrol of five troopers of Strathcona's Horse, under Sergt. Brothers, met death. It appears that they were suddenly surrounded by a strong force of Boers. The Canadians indignantly refused to surrender, and a murderous fire was exchanged at short range until every man in the party was riddled with bullets, but not before each Canadian had accounted for three Boers."

"Sir Redvers Buller, while passing through Machadodorp and bidding farewell to the troops, said he should be greatly pleased to tell Lord Strathcona of the magnificent work of his troopers."

THE NEW WAR VESSELS.

There Promises to Be a Lively Competition Among Ship Builders for Their Construction.

Washington, Oct. 11.—There promises to be a lively competition for building the new battle ships and cruisers. Several of the ship building industries already have their representatives here securing the specifications for the ships preparatory to submitting bids. These include some yards which thus far have not done any government work.

The present low price of steel is expected by naval officials to result in giving the government the advantage of low bids. The builders state that steel shapes and frames can be bought for 1 7-10 cents per pound, as against 2 1/2 a short time ago.

ROOSEVELT ASSAULTED.

A Gang of Hoodlums Threw Rocks
at His Carriage, One Striking
Him on the Shoulder.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Hoodlums at Ft. Wayne Wednesday night endeavored to rival those who made an attack upon Gov. Roosevelt at Victor, Col., and in a measure succeeded. On Calhoun street, shortly before the procession reached the rink where Gov. Roosevelt was to speak, a party of roughs on the sidewalk threw a shower of rocks at Col. Roosevelt's carriage. One struck Gov. Roosevelt on the shoulder, and another aimed at the governor missed him and struck Col. Curtis Guild, jr., of Boston, in the face.

Sold to the United States.

The opposition party in the Danish parliament favors the transaction, but urges the government to obtain a larger price than the United States previously offered. It is understood that America wishes to use St. Croix as a naval coaling station."

THE MINERS IN A RIOT.

One Man Killed and 12 Others
Wounded One of Whom Will Die.

The Fracas Originated in an Effort
Made By Union Men to Close the Oneida Colliery of the Coxe Brothers.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—President Mitchell issued his call Monday for the much-talked-of miners' convention to consider the operators' offer of a ten per cent. increase in wages. The convention will be held at Scranton and will open on Friday next. Representation in the convention will be on the basis of one delegate with one vote for each 100 persons on strike.

It is the general expectation that the decision of the convention will be to accept the increase and return to work. Quietness prevailed throughout the anthracite regions Monday, the call for the convention being generally accepted as a signal for cessation of hostilities all around. There were many expressions of satisfaction by miners and operators and by merchants and others in the mining section Monday over the prospects of an early settlement of the existing troubles.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 11.—A special policeman was instantly killed, another was wounded in the head, a striker was probably fatally shot and ten nonunion men were more or less seriously wounded at the Oneida colliery of Coxe Bros. & Co., live, decided early Wednesday morning to close down the mine. They gathered in groups on the streets as early as 3 o'clock. As the nonunion men went to work they were asked by the strikers to remain at home. Some turned back, others did not.

Those who went to the colliery were stoned. Van Blargin, of the nonunion employees attempted to pull a revolver but the weapon was taken from him and in the beating he received he had several ribs broken. This occurred just before starting time at the mine. The strikers remained at the colliery all morning. As the small mine locomotive used in hauling coal from the No. 2 and No. 3 collieries to the Oneida breaker pulled up on the road near the latter colliery, a crowd of women blocked the track. The women were told by General Superintendent Kudlick to go home. He assured them that their husbands would get an increase in wages and that their other grievances would be properly adjusted.

The women refused to listen and stoned the superintendent, who was wounded in the head. Then the striking men and the women rushed toward the No. 2 colliery. A force of about 50 special policemen who had been brought down from Beaver Meadow to prevent trouble, attempted to intercept the mob, but they were powerless to do anything and retired to the engine house.

Just as the officers got close to shelter a shot was fired. This was followed by another and in a few seconds many shots rang through the air. Policeman Minis was first to fall. Then Joseph Lesko, a striker, staggered to the ground. No one knows who shot first but it is believed that both the strikers and the officers used their weapons. A gun shot killed Mills and small shot struck Policeman Kellnor. Lesko, the striker, was struck by a ball from a revolver with which all the officers were armed.

Notices were posted Wednesday night by Coxe Bros. & Co., at their Oneida, Berringer, Cowen and Beaver Meadow collieries that there would be a suspension of work until the strike is settled.

All the officials, including Luther S. Smith, the manager of the company, are on the ground and a special train with steam up is waiting to carry them anywhere along the line of the Delaware, Susquehanna & Schuylkill railroad.

NOTES FROM THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

"The Singer Manufacturing Company, of 149 Broadway, New York, show their usual American enterprise by having a very creditable exhibit, located in Group XIII, Class 79, at the Paris International Exposition, where they show to great advantage the celebrated Singer Sewing-Machine which is used in every country on the globe, both for family use and for manufacturing purposes. The writer was highly pleased with this display and observed with much satisfaction that it was favorably commented upon by visitors generally."

The Grand Prize was awarded by the International Jury to Singer Sewing-Machines for superior excellence in design, construction, efficiency and for remarkable development and adaption to every stitching process used in either the family or the factory.

Only One Grand Prize for sewing machines was awarded at Paris, and this distinction of absolutely superior merit confirms the previous action of the International Jury at the World's Columbian Exposition, in Chicago, where Singer machines received 54 distinct awards, being more than were received by all other kinds of sewing machines combined.

Should it be possible that any of our readers are unfamiliar with the celebrated Singer Machine, we would respectfully advise that they call at any of the Singer salesrooms which can be found in all cities and most towns in the United States."

"I have just finished a sonnet," said the poet, according to the Atlanta Constitution. "Thank heaven!" exclaimed the wife, "that'll buy a beefsteak and a sack of flour!"

"And here is an ode for the state fair." "How fortunate! Here is 15 cents a pound, and we haven't had any in six weeks!"

"I have also written a love song which is as tender as an April rose." "What a dear, sweet soul you are! I'm sure you'll make a can of lard and a gallon of molasses!"

"Woman!" said the poet, sternly, "do you know what genius is?" "Yes," she said, thoughtfully. "Sometimes it's telling the butcher to call again, shutting the door on the baker, hiding from the house rent man, and singing, 'When Sunday comes, I would not live always; I ask not to stay!'"
